Frequently Asked Questions

Who is conducting the Vision 2040 effort?

The Virgin Islands Economic Development Authority (VIEDA) is leading this effort. A Task Force has been assembled of government officials and stakeholders to oversee the process. A consulting team, led by Camoin 310, is assisting VIEDA in creating the plan. Camoin 310 is a national economic development firm that was selected after a competitive selection process.

How can I be involved?

Vision 2040 is a community-driven economic development plan and your input is critical for its success. There will be many ways to provide input and stay up to date with the project. Over the course of the project there will be public presentations, virtual interactive open house events, and surveys for you to participate in. Due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, all events are currently planned to be virtual in nature. Go to www.USVI2040.com to take the community survey, sign up for updates, and find information on other ways to participate.

When will Vision 2040 be complete?

The process will run from October 2020 through February 2021 (see project timeline above). The final report will be available to the public.

How is this being funded?

The Vision 2040 plan is being funded by the U.S. Economic Development Agency as part of the federal recovery grants following the devastating Irma and Maria Hurricanes of 2017 and the Virgin Islands Housing Finance Authority ("VIHFA")/Community Development Block Grant for Disaster Recovery ("CDBG-DR").
